THE FLORISTS

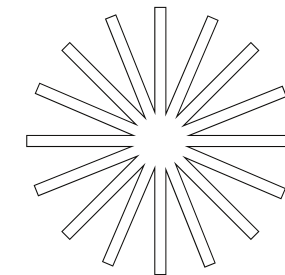

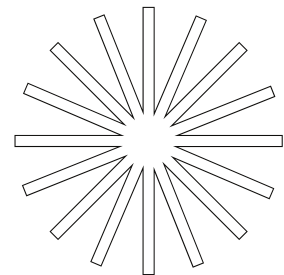

Camilla Kline's passion for flowers blossomed in her childhood as she assisted her mother in gardening and creating arrangements for their church. After studying environmental science, she has dedicated the past four years to her professional journey in floristry at Boxwoods, where she has worked with fresh-cut flowers, artificial blooms, preserved florals, and both indoor and outdoor plants.

Michele Taylor has been working in florals at Boxwoods for a little over a year but has been a plant enthusiast for much of her life. With a masters degree in art history Michele loves to bring historical inspiration to her everyday creations. She enjoys working on projects both large and small in a variety of floral mediums including fresh-cut, artificial, and preserved as well as indoor plants and orchids.
